

Columbia Business School Global Event

Ken and Penny attended the Columbia Business School Pan-Asian Reunion in Hong Kong on October 24-26, 2008. The two-day symposium focused on “Asia and the World Economy”.

The event featured a keynote address by John C. Tsang, JP, Financial Secretary, Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR), and nine panel presentations moderated by Columbia Business School faculty on topics which included healthcare, private equity, media and real estate. It was a good forum to be updated on the global financial crisis and the principles of Value Investing.

Welcome to the Pan-Asian Reunion 2008

Ken and Penny with Prof. Bruce Greenwald, who chairs the Graham and Dodd Investing Centre

Ken and Penny with Henry Kravis, the cofounder of KKR

Ken and Prof. Bernd Schmitt who moderated the panel presentation entitled “How to Build an Asian Brand into a Global Brand”

Penny with Ronny Chan, who chairs Hang Lung Properties

Ken with Steven Pan, who chairs Grand Formosa Regent

A photo taken with Dean Glenn Hubbard of the Columbia Business School at the Gala Dinner